

ICAR organised monthly meeting of Programme Production Committee-PPC MMSAE

To reach the unreached the Government of India has decided to pass the information to the farmers in remotest parts of the country on the improved technology, new agricultural schemes and its benefits, success stories of the various programmes undertaken by the line departments, SAUs, Research organizations, ICAR, etc. The main objective of the monthly meeting was to finalize the programme which will be telecasted in coming month as well as to review the progress of the programmes covered and telecasted by the Doordarshan, Shillong. The meeting was held at ICAR Research Complex at Barapani on 8th July 2014, which was chaired by the Dr A. K. Tripathi, HOD Social Science and attended by the representative of different departments viz., Agriculture, Horticulture, veterinary, fisheries, ASR, DDK, PIB, Representative of CPGS, Barapani, Field officers, etc. In the meeting the progress was reviewed and the programmes for the month of July was finalized which will be telecasted by the Doordarshan.