

KVK Anjaw Celebrates the Agriculture Education Day

KVK Anjaw celebrates the “Agriculture Education Day” 3rd December, 2016 for promoting the field of Agriculture and allied sciences among the students and public. The special day was marked with participation of 110 students from the classes of X, XI and XII along with teachers of Govt. Higher Secondary School, Hayuliang. The programme was started with

Essay writing competition

Prize distribution to successful students in quiz competition green revolution which was marked as one of the most important revolution for minimizing the starvation in the country. As per the production of foodgrains and increasing population requirement there is still a huge gap lacking behind so, he also

Speech by PC KVK Anjaw

welcome address from Dr Manish Kanwat, Programme Coordinator, KVK, Anjaw. During his inspirational speech, he spoke about the spirit behind celebrating the Agricultural Education Day and imparted the students about the importance of agriculture in the present era as the country

Quiz competition is highly dependent on agriculture and allied sector for growth and development. He also spoke about the Prize distribution to successful students in essay competition encourage the students to choose the agriculture as carrier option so that they can enable to serve the farming community as well nation.

The Principal of the school also gave a short speech on the said special occasion and expressed happiness about the enthusiasm with which students participated in the celebrations of the agricultural education day and expressed his satisfaction that KVK Anjaw celebrated such a motivated programme. The programme was followed by quiz and essay writing competition where 35 students were participated. The Programme was concluded with distribution of prizes to the successful students in the competition from the hand of Programme Coordinator and Principal.