

ICAR-Krishi Vigyan Kendra (KVK), West Siang organized the “Sankalp Se Siddhi” programme

Basar 31st August, 2017

The Krishi Vigyan Kendra (KVK), West Siang under ICAR-RC for NEH Region, Arunachal Pradesh Centre organized a programme “Sankalp Se Siddhi- determination to attainment” with series of impressive events on 29th August, 2017 at Trainees Hostel, Basar. The basic objective of the programme was to take forward the initiative by Hon’ble Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi ji on building a New India by 2022. The New India will be clean, free from poverty, corruption, communalism, casteism and also with a target of doubling the farmers’ income by 2022. The programme Chief Guest chaired by Smt. Tonyir Basar, ZPM Basar (11A). The inaugural session started with lightning of lamp followed by playing of ICAR song and welcome address by Dr. H. Kalita, Joint Director (I/C) to the participants. The technical session started with the farmer scientist interaction followed by Hon’ble Prime Minister message has been spoken by Dr. Anup Chandra, Scientist (Entomology). A pledge has been taken by the participants during the programme and a video (Kisan film produced by ICAR council) also screened for motivating the participants on building a new India by 2022. A total of 67 nos. of participants including farmers and line department officers attended to move the programme success. Entire programme was covered by the Doordarshan Kendra, Itanagar and local private TV channel of Basar for broadcasting. The programme ended with vote of thanks proposed by Shri. Debashis Datta, Subject Matter Specialist (Agricultural Extension) followed by playing of national anthem.

Photograph of “New India Manthan: Sankalp Se Siddhi” programme on 29th August, 2017