

KISAN SANKALP MELA & INPUT DISTRIBUTION PROGRAMME ORGANIZED AT HAYULIANG, ANJAW

Hayuliang, August 30th 2017, Kirshi Vigyan Kendra, Anjaw organized Kisan Sankalp Mela and Input Distribution programme successfully organized at Hayuliang under SANKALP Se SIDDHI : A new India Movement (2017-2022).

The programme was begin with welcome address and brief introduction delivered by Dr Manish Kanwat, Sr. Scientist & Head about SANKALP Se SIDDHI determination to attainment movement under which farmers scientist interaction programme was conducted where more than 218 farmers and scientist of Krishi Vigyan Kendra and guest faculty members from College of Horticulture & forestry, Passighat answered the various queries and problem were raised by the farmers of different nooks and corners of Anjaw District. The programme was inaugurated by Smt. Dasanglu Pul Hon'ble MLA and Chairperson APMDTCL, Govt. of Arunachal Pradesh. In her Chief Guest address of farmers Smt. Pul elaborated about the various programme initiated by the Central & State government aimed to welfare of farming community of Arunachal Pradesh. The gathering was also address by Sh Kego Jilen ADC Hayulaing Guest of honour, who motivated the farmers to adopt the diversified agriculture so that the dependency and risk associated with single crop can be minimized. Sh Chonu Tindya Anchal Samiti Chairperson, Chaglagam has urged to scientific fraternity to look into the various determinants causing the deterioration the large cardamom production in the Anjaw district. He also urged to KVK Anjaw and CHF Pasighat to organize training and demonstration programme focused on suitable scientific package and practices on large cardamom for this district. Dr Mukul Kumar, Associate Professor & Head PBG, CHF Passighat has also enlighten the gathering about to make New India by adopting location specific and low cost technologies suitable for doubling the agriculture income. The inputs and implements were also distributed by the gracious hands of Smt Dasnglu Pul Hon'ble MLA to 187 farmers for suited for hill farming for drudgery reduction under Tribal Sub Plan.

Altogether 227, people had taken New India Pledge for building a New India through mission of making the nation free from poverty, corruption, terrorism, communalism and casteism as well as the people also took pledge for doubling agriculture income by 2022 through adoption of crop insurance, organic farming, soil health card, high yielding seeds and planting material as well as value addition of the agricultural produce. The gathering took pledge to devote themselves by their soul and deed to build New India. The programme has become successful by the joint hands of HoDs of various line department's and the local public leaders.

