

Demonstration of Research and Development activities of ICAR RC NEH, Mizoram Centre, Kolasib, Mizoram for M. Sc. (Forestry) students of Mizoram University.

A total of 33 MSC (Forestry) students from Mizoram University under the guidance of Dr. K. Upadhyaya (Associate Professor) and Dr. K. S. Kumar (Assistant Professor) visited ICAR RC NEH Region, Mizoram Centre, Kolasib on 17th March, 2017. The visit was based upon the course to fulfill the watershed management exposure. Field and laboratory visit including the ongoing research was demonstrated to the students to give practical acquaintance of research and development activities. Dr. S. B. Singh (Joint Director, ICAR RC for NEH Region, Mizoram Centre greeted them followed by demonstration from Dr, Lungmuana, Scientist (Soil Science) in the laboratory, focusing the analytical methods of soil research and vermicomposting techniques in vermi unit. Dr. Saurav Saha, Scientist (Agril. Physics) demonstrate climate variability and its importance in environmental research in the meteorological station. Poultry unit, integrated farming models and ongoing farm trials were also visited and demonstrated.

