

Training on backyard poultry production held at Tafraliang by KVK-Anjaw.

Training on backyard poultry production to mitigate the morbidity and mortality of poultry rearing in local condition held at Tafraliang, Hayuliang circle on 8th March 2017 by KVK, Anjaw. Dr. Manish Kanwat senior scientist and Head KVK Anjaw, encourage the farmers to tap the potential of scientific manpower of KVK Anjaw, to address the various issues pertaining to livestock production related matter. Dr. Tilling Tayo SMS- Animal Science, KVK Anjaw, through power point presentation, presented in all the different aspect of disease, feeding management and biosecurity measure of backyard poultry production. All together 35 farmers attended the training. The programme concluded with vote of thanks by Peter Singh SMS-Social Sciences.

Action Photographs

